MONEY FROM GERMANS

Teutons to Finance the Plot and Japan Was to Be Urged to Pursue Alliance With Entente Associated Press Account of Plot Proves Correct.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Full official confirmation of German intrigues to ally Mexico and Japan with her to make war on the United States, as revealed last night by the Associated Press, was given today at the White House, the State Department and the Senate.

On the floor of the Senate, it was announced that Democratic Senators had been authorized to state that the relations, including the text of the instructions from German foreign minister Zimmermann to German Minister von Eckhardt at Mexico City, were correct.

On motion of Senator Lodge, the Senate at once took up a proposal to ask the President to communicate the facts to Congress officially.

After considerable discussion, Senator Hardwick insisted upon an objection to immediate consideration of the Lodge resolution in order that there might be time for deliberation by the foreign relations committee.

Secretary Lansing authorized this statement: "We do not believe that Japan has had any knowledge of this or that she would consider any proposition made by an enemy."

As to Mexico he said: "We have confidence that Mexico would not be a party to any such agreement in view of the friendly relations existing between this and the de facto government of Mexico."

Senator Stone's request to have the resolution referred to the foreign relations committee without any instructions as to when it should report, was adopted by unanimous consent. The text of the Lodge resolution is as follows:

"That the President be requested to inform the Senate whether the signed Zimmermann published in the newspapers of the morning of March 1, inviting Mexico to unite with Germany and Japan in war against the United States is authentic and in the possession of the United States and if it is authentic to send any further information in the possession of the United States government relative to the activity of the Imperial German government in Mexico."

Senator Stone called the foreign relations committee to meet today to consider the Lodge resolution.

Secretary Lansing took great care. It will be noted, to exonerate both Japan and Mexico and said this government had no knowledge that the proposal had been conveyed through Mexico to Japan.

In view of the fact that the plan was not to be presented until "it is certain that there will be an outbreak of war with the United States," it was not certain that the latter had been officially presented to General Carranza at all.

It is known definitely, officials said, that Zimmermann's instructions reached Count von Bernstorff here in Washington, that he forwarded them to Mexico City, and that they reached the German minister there. At this point, the trail of official certainty is lost to view.

Secretary Lansing flatly refused to give any indication of how the information came into possession of the United States government, on the grounds that it would endanger the lives of those concerned.

For obvious reasons, which he could not amplify, he refused to discuss the source.

Ambassador Sata of Japan was informed of the possession of the German proposal by this government yesterday afternoon when he called at the State Department to see Counselor Bolk. The Japanese embassy made this comment:

"With regard to the alleged German attempt to induce Japan and Mexico to make war upon the United States made public in the press this morning, the Japanese embassy, while lacking information as to whether such invitation ever reached Tokyo, desires to state most emphatically, that any invitation of this sort would under no circumstances be entertained by the Japanese government, which is in close relation with the other powers, on account of formal agreements and our common cause, and moreover, our good friendship with the United States, which is every day growing in sincerity and cordiality."

The Senate foreign relations committee this afternoon ordered a favorable report on the Lodge resolution after changing only a few words. The committee struck out the provision

"NO LEEK NO COAL"
IS SLOGAN MISERS
IN KANSAS ADOPT

By Associated Press.
TOPEKA, Kan., March 1.—State officials expressed anxiety today over the attitude of the miners of Southeastern Kansas on the "bone dry" prohibition law.

Adopting a slogan of "no beer, no coal," the miners, most of whom are foreigners, left work in one mine yesterday and other threatened walkouts were feared today.

Asking the President for information as to when the Zimmermann letter came into possession of the United States.

Secretary Baker today conferred with President Wilson and afterward volunteered the comment that "this is a very serious situation." He would not reveal the subjects they discussed.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The Associated Press last night revealed that Germany, planning unrestricted submarine warfare and counting its consequences, proposed an alliance with Mexico and Japan to make war on the United States.

Mexico for her reward was to receive general financial support from Germany, reconquer Texas, New Mexico and Arizona—lost provinces—and share in the victorious peace terms Germany contemplated.

Details were left to German Minister von Eckhardt at Mexico City, who by instructions signed by German Foreign Minister Zimmermann, at Berlin, January 19, 1917, was directed to propose the alliance with Mexico to General Carranza and suggest that Mexico seek to bring Japan into the plot.

These instructions were transmitted to von Eckhardt through Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador here, now on his way home to Germany under a safe conduct obtained from his enemies by the country against which he was plotting war.

Germany pictured to Mexico by broad intimation England and the Entente Allies defeated, Germany and her allies triumphant and in world domination by the instrument of unrestricted submarine warfare.

A copy of Zimmermann's instructions to von Eckhardt, sent through von Bernstorff, is in possession of the United States government. It is as follows:

"On the 1st of February we intend to begin submarine warfare unrestricted. In spite of this it is our intention to endeavor to keep neutral the United States of America."

"If this attempt is not successful we propose an alliance on the following basis with Mexico: That we shall make war together and together make peace. We shall give general financial support, and it is understood that Mexico is to reconquer the lost territory in New Mexico, Texas and Arizona. The details are left to you for settlement."

"You are instructed to inform the President of Mexico of the above in the greatest confidence as soon as it is certain that there will be an outbreak of war with the United States and suggest that the President of Mexico, on his own initiative, should communicate with Japan suggesting adherence at once to this plan; at the same time offer to mediate between Germany and Japan."

"Please call to the attention of the President of Mexico that the employment of ruthless submarine warfare now promises to compel England to make peace in a few months."

"Zimmermann."

WASHINGTON
IS VOTED DRY

Prohibition Wins An Unexpected Double Victory; Filibuster Falls.

Special to The Courier.
WASHINGTON, March 1.—Prohibition won a double victory in Congress last night when the House passed by a vote of 273 to 137 the Senate bill to make the national capital dry and Senate and House conferees on the postal appropriation bill unexpectedly announced an agreement under which the Reed "bone dry" amendment is virtually assured of enactment.

The District bill, which would become effective November 1, was brought to a vote after a stubborn opposition had delayed for several hours the final roll call. While the leaders knew would mean passage, all day and until late in the evening they stood by their guns, exhausting every parliamentary expedient to ward off action and watching for an opportunity to pull the measure into a position that would mean its failure with the expiration of the session Sunday.

Failing to displace the bill or to force an adjournment, the filibusters centered their attention on an effort to add amendments that would throw it into conference and prevent enactment at this session. They made their last stand on an amendment that would have given the people of the District a referendum on the proposal.

Congressmen R. F. Hopwood of Minnesota, and A. L. Foster of Scotland, both voted on the "dry" side.

JACK CRAWFORD, THE
"POET SCOUT" CALLED
BY THE GRIM REAPER.

CAPTAIN JACK CRAWFORD

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 1.—John Wallace, better known as "Captain Jack" Crawford, a noted Indian fighter of early frontier days, died at his home in Woodlawn, Long Island. He was stricken with pneumonia, more than a month ago.

Captain Crawford wrote a number of plays, stories and poems, and was known as the "poet scout." He was chief of scouts under General Custer at the time of the Custer massacre, but it is said that he was on his way to Custer's headquarters with dispatches when this event took place. Later he played an active part in the pursuit of Sitting Bull.

Crawford was born in Ireland in 1847. He served in the Civil War and the story is that he learned to read and write while in the hospital recovering from a wound.

Captain Crawford lectured here on several occasions.

GIVES BAIL

Produce Man Will Stand Trial for Receiving Stolen Goods.

Charles Caplan, charged with receiving stolen goods, in connection with the theft of Street Commissioner William McCormick's chickens, gave $300 bail for court yesterday, having failed to reach an agreement with McCormick. Also DeTemple was also held for court by Alderman W. D. Colborn on charges of breaking and entering, but it is likely that his indictment will be quashed, McCormick being unwilling to prosecute him, because of his age.

Caplan, who is a produce dealer, is accused of buying chickens from DeTemple, while knowing that they had been stolen. There was some talk of a settlement, but nothing was accomplished in this line.

STATE FOOD COMMISSIONER
URGES BOYCOTTS TO BRING DOWN PRICES OF FOODSTUFFS

Urging a boycott of expensive foodstuffs, especially potatoes, State Food and Dairy Commissioner James W. Foster yesterday conferred with agents in the Pittsburgh district at that city yesterday. The only way to bring down the price of potatoes is to do without them until April 1, Mr. Foster said.

"If every home would quit using potatoes until April 1 and if hotels would take them off their menus the price would soon drop to $1.50 a bushel," he said. "Any and every family can do this. Use some substitute; there are plenty of them."

Commissioner Foster said there are plenty of potatoes, but they are being held for top price. There are also plenty of onions and other commodities, he declared, but these also are being held. The commissioner expressed regret that the bureau of which he is the head is not invested with the power and facilities for handling such a situation as exists in the food market today.

"There is a shortage," he declared, "but it is by no means as great as it is made to appear."

Reports show that 3,505,554 bushels of potatoes are held in the hands of Pennsylvania producers, according to the best information of the State Department of Agriculture. Fayette county is reported to have 30,110 bushels, Somerset 97,332 bushels, Westmoreland 62,107 bushels and Greene 19,041.

Fayette county is reported to have 650 dozens of eggs in storage, as well as 16,857 pounds of butter and 19,531 pounds of cheese.

The following figures will give an idea of the price received by the grower and the price paid by consumers, as of February 25, 1917: Potatoes—Grower, $1.30 bushel; consumer, $3 and $3.25 a bushel. Apples—Grower, $2.04 a barrel; consumer, $3 to $3.50 a barrel. Cabbage—Grower, 3 cents a pound; consumer, 10 cents a pound. Onions—Grower, $1.50 a bushel; consumer, $3 to $5 a bushel. The 1916 yield of principal vegetables in Pennsylvania follows: Potatoes, 18,564,000 bushels; onions, 74,000 bushels; sweet potatoes, 98,000 bushels; beans, 10,152 bushels; cabbage, 21,580 tons; peas, 70 per cent of the normal crop, and tomatoes and sweet corn, 75 per cent of the normal crop.

DUSHANE BUILDING
FOR A CITY HALL

City Is Offered North End Property for $15,000; Has Some Advantages.

A proposal of the Dushane estate's property on Witter avenue and Fayette street as the site for a new city hall has occasioned some comment, both favorable and unfavorable, upon the choice of this ground. Though the council has not decided the proposal as yet, it will in all likelihood be considered when the subject of providing a new municipal building is brought up again.

"The property is a large piece" of ground, 220 feet on Meadow lane, 211½ on Witter avenue, 195 on Fayette, and 305 on the alleys at the west end of the site. A large brick house, with four rooms on each floor, is situated on the Witter avenue side. J. D. Dushane, representing the J. M. Dushane estate, offered the entire property to the city for $15,000.

It is the idea of those backing the plan to have the city turn the grounds into a public park; and to erect the city hall at one end of the property. A slice could be cut off the ground at the Meadow lane side, making that thoroughfare as wide as Johnston avenue, and really running Johnston avenue on through to Witter avenue.

Council could use the house now on the grounds as an office building for a time, if unable to erect a new city hall at once. The rooms could be converted into a council chamber, and six offices could remain.

The objections to the plan are that the site is too far from the center of town, and that a fire station erected there would be as unsatisfactory as the present West Side fire house, since the Pennsylvania railroad crossing would be between the station and the business section.

The advantages are that it is an extremely large piece of ground, from which a park could be provided, giving Connellsville a real civic center, and that the property could be secured at a comparatively low figure. Mr. Dushane, anxious to sell the ground all at once, instead of in lots, in order to settle up the Dushane estate, even proposed to take care of the bonds which the city would likely issue to cover the expense.

WOULD CENSURE QUEEN.

Parliament Thinks She Should Not Go Skating.

By Associated Press.
AMSTERDAM, March 1.—Should a queen go skating when her country is in as serious a position as Holland? The question has been raised for Parliament by motion to censure Queen Wilhelmina for going to skate at the Leerdamers' two days after Germany's submarine warfare was announced. While there is no chance of the motion even coming to a vote it has been the subject of much discussion in the lobbies and the newspapers.

Supporters of the motion declare that skating and ice sports are undignified and imply the neglect of state affairs by the queen.

REVIVALS HAVE TO BE DEFERRED

Rev. G. W. Buckner Will Not Be Able to Come From England For Campaign Here.

Revival meetings in the Christian Church, which were to have been conducted by Rev. G. W. Buckner, pastor of the church, have been indefinitely postponed. It was planned to have the elder Buckner here for services the first part of April, but word from him was to the effect that he could not come until the latter part of the month.

Realizing that this would be too late in the year for a campaign, Rev. C. C. Buckner wrote to his father proposing that they exchange pulpits for a period of six months, the son to go to South Fort, England, and the father to come here. This letter was mailed on February 14 and Rev. Buckner believes that it went down with the Laconia, which sailed from New York on February 18 with 5,000 bags of delayed European mail.

At first Rev. Buckner cabled that he would come the early part of April. In a letter, however, he stated that he would not be able to get here until the end of the month.

Negro Gets Past Police With "38" Under Arm Pit.

Walter Lockett, a Richmond negro who was arrested here by Baltimore & Ohio officers, after he had been found in a merchandise car, helping himself to bags of peanuts, had a .38-caliber revolver with him when he was locked up in a cell at police station Tuesday night. Lockett had a sling over his shoulder with the gun at the end of the sling, under his arm pit, and got past the police. Patrolman George Francis failed to find the pistol. On Wednesday morning Railroad Officer Wilshire discovered the revolver, and a charge of carrying concealed weapons was preferred against Lockett in addition to the one of breaking and entering.

A prisoner seldom gets past the police with a gun, every one being thoroughly searched.

WORKMEN GETTING SLIGO READY FOR EARLY RESUMPTION

Pittsburg Capitalists Take Over the Mill Today and Will Eventually Buy It.

$60,000 INITIAL PAYMENT

That New Company Means Business Is Evidenced by Cash Payment to Inch Deal With Charles Davidson; No Trouble in Getting Men Expected.

A force of men started work today closing up the Sligo mill property, north of the city, preparatory to early resumption under the control of Pittsburg capitalists who, today, took charge of the plant.

The exclusive announcement in yesterday's Courier that Sligo was to resume the manufacture of iron and later of steel caused considerable comment. The addition of another industry to the city's list, with 125 or more men employed, will be no small part in Connellsville's industrial revival.

That the Pittsburg men mean business was evidenced by the payment of $60,000 to close the deal with Charles Davidson for the lease on the plant. That they will eventually take the property of Mr. Davidson's hands is predicted by men in position to know.

The new company will be known as the Sligo Iron & Steel company. It will be organized and chartered as soon as the details of the transfer are attended to.

Joseph McConnell, who is to be in charge of the plant, stated today that he did not anticipate much trouble in securing men to operate the plant although he admitted the labor shortage is troublesome.

"Do you think it is possible to get the plant in shape for operation in three or four weeks?" Mr. McConnell was asked.

"That is the intention at present," was the reply.

About a year ago announcement was made that Sligo would resume. It developed, however, that the company was merely attempting to junk the mill. An injunction was secured and the plant reverted back to Mr. Davidson. At that time considerable work was done that will go a long way toward getting the mill in shape for resumption now.

TEMPERATURES VARY.

February a Month of Extremes, Mercury Reaching 70 and 2 Below.

Temperature figures for the month of February given out this morning by C. A. Furbaugh, auditor at the West Penn, show that the month was just as variable as ever, both zero and midsummer weather being represented. The highest figure reached was 70 on the 27th, the lowest two below zero, occurring on the 5th and the 13th. The average maximum was 45.2, average minimum 23.1, and average mean 34.1.

In February of last year the highest figure was 72, and the lowest four below zero. The average maximum was 43.7, minimum, 22.7; mean 33.2.

March came in today like a lamb, hence rough weather may be looked for at the close of the month.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT! STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Hair Stops Falling Out and Gets Thick, Wavy, Strong and Beautiful.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Dandorine hair cleanser." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandorine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying your hair at once Dandorine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandorine from drug and toilet counter, and just try it.—Adv.

BETTER COKE SUPPLY ENABLES BANKED FURNACES TO RESUME

Prices Still Hold to High Levels, Spot Furnace Selling
at $13.

$15 NEW FOUNDRY MARK

Demanded for This Grade Has Assumed
Large Proportions and Is Increasing.
Consumers Having Deferred Making
Contracts Before Movement Began.

Special to The Weekly Courier.
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28.—This week
began with the apparently continuing of the banked blast
furnaces resuming while at the same time the spot furnace coke prices have equalled the previous record while the foundry coke made a new high record, at $15. The explanation appears to be that the better supplies
of coke at blast furnaces were due to a great deal of coke that was in transit, reaching destination, supplies being materially larger shipments made during the week. Last week opened excellently as to our supplies, but closed very poorly, and the holiday
Thursday made some trouble besides.

Ex United States Steel Corporation
blast furnaces in the Chicago district are banked, together with four of the five stacks at Lorain and one Carnegie stack, there being 12 Carnegie furnaces out of blast entirely, some on account of lack of coke. About a dozen Carnegie furnaces that were banked have resumed. Apparently the refractory ovens are doing as well as the steel works ovens in shipping
coke.

One of the Josephine stacks as well as a Scottsdale furnace, both owned by Morgan, McKimsey & Company, Cleveland, were scheduled to blow in week before last, after refueling, but they are still out of blast. It has been impossible to secure coke. It is understood that part of the coke
required is under contract.

Monday opened with very high prices for spot coke. There was one lot of spot furnace sold at $12, undoubtedly the minimum for the day, while as high as $13 was reported as paid. It is anticipated that $15 was paid by consumers for spot foundry
coke, a new high record on this movement. Fancy prices for foundry coke
do not represent a premium for box
cars, as scarcely any spot foundry
coke is shipped in box cars, the supplies being insufficient to load all the contract coke. The demand for spot foundry coke has been increasing
since the first of the year and is now
of unusually large proportions, this being due to the fact that a number of consumers who usually make contracts are unprovided with contracts.
They are among those who thought
last April $3.50 was a high price for a contract and bought only for six months. In The Courier of March 30, 1916, it was reported that contracting for foundry coke had started with a rush, a price of $3.50 being established and open to no question. Operators gave buyers choice at the same figure
of six month or twelve month contracts, beginning July 1. Those who elected to buy for six months only were quite unwilling to contract for the first half of this year, at this much higher prices ruling late in the old year, up to $3.50 so that now they are regular buyers in the spot market.

Monday marked the highest prices
for spot coke and yesterday and today
the market has been 50 cents to a dollar a ton lower with indications for the future very uncertain. There are no contract prices, and prices last done on contract are named as the
nominal market:

Spot furnace $11.50 to $12.50
Contract furnace nominal, $3.50 to $4.50
Spot foundry $13.00 to $14.00
Contract foundry nominal, $3.50 to $4.50

The United States Steel Corporation,
which has been buying spot coke for a fortnight, withdrew from the market
last Saturday, and this week has started several plants that were idle from lack of coal. The United States Steel Corporation's withdrawal softened the market only slightly, as spot coke is now quoted at $6.00 to $6.25 for stack, $5.50 for steam mine-run and $5.75 to $6.00 for 3 1/2-inch gas, per net
ton at Blair Pittsburg district.

Consumers of foundry iron are still active in the market, buying small lots for quick delivery at up to $38.
Valley, where they have plenty of iron
due from old contracts at about $18 or 19 half as much. Bessemer and blast are rather quiet. There is practically no interest in second hand
northern iron of any grade. There has been some buying of southern
iron, at a much cheaper delivered,
if it is delivered. The northern market will hardly be active for see-

COKE TRADE SUMMARY.

The coke trade demonstrated
last week that with the prevalence of fair weather it can make rapid strides toward normal conditions of operation and shipments. In proof of this shipments jumped from 200,000 to 325,000 tons, a gain of 62.5 per cent, or within 1,500 tons of the first week of January, which holds the record for the year to date. Production kept pace, having been practically the same as the shipments, thereby showing that the plants of the Connellsville
region are in an excellent
state of preparedness to meet sudden or large demands, or material betterment in our service and supply.

The outlook for this week was fairly good until the heavy fall of snow came yesterday, but unless the temperature drops to a low point, serious impairment of train movement is not anticipated. Car supply is averaging about 600.

The receipt of better coke
supplies enabled a number of the banked furnaces to resume operations during the week. Notwithstanding the freer movement of coke prices held up well. Spot furnace sold up to $13.00 and spot foundry at $15.00 made a new high record for this grade,
but the range is $13.00 to $14.00.

and half until enough southern iron
has been bought to advance prices to a parity with northern. Northern iron for prompt delivery is quotable as follows:

Bessemer		$25.00 to $26.00
Basic		$26.00 to $27.00
No. 2 foundry		$28.00 to $29.00
Miscellaneous		$25.00 to $26.00

These prices are f. o. b. Valley furnaces, prices delivered Pittsburgh being higher by the 95 cents freight. Bessemer for second half delivery is quotable at $35 and basic at $30. While no quotations are made on foundry
iron it normally sells at about the same price as basic.

STOCKS PILE UP AT STEEL MILLS

Improvements in Traffic Conditions
Being in Spots and Not Permanent;
Market Is Very Quiet.

Special to The Weekly Courier.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The American Metal Market and Daily Iron & Steel Report will review the steel and iron trade tomorrow as follows:

The improvement in traffic conditions is only in spots and where improvement has been observed there is no assurance of its being permanent.
Although production was at a restricted rate last week, the shipments of steel fell short of the production and a further addition was made to the already uncomfortable stocks of steel
at mills. With slightly better car supplies this week most of the mills
have to make an even break between production and shipments.

The United States Steel Corporation
this week started the Upper and Lower mills at Youngstown and part of the Lorain pipe mill, all three plants having been down last week
for lack of coal, while the thawing
of the Monongahela river permitted resumption at Pittsburgh plants that were idle for lack of coal.

Receipts of coke at blast furnaces
have been better the past week
chiefly through more coke in transit reaching destination. Four of the five Lorain stacks are still banked, as well
as six of the Steel Corporation's furnaces in the Chicago district, but the Carnegie Steel Company has resumed operations at about a dozen banked furnaces, now having one furnace
banked and 12 out of blast, of its 59 furnaces.

The finished steel markets are on the whole very quiet, but a great deal
of routine business is being put on the books. Two prospective ship yards
have appeared in the plate market,
one at Superior, Wis., and one at Staten Island.

Pig iron prices are advancing irregularly. The northern market is one of prompt deliveries, there being
no interest in second half deliveries.
Offerings of southern iron are lighter.
One southern producer is reported to have advanced from $25 to $30, Birmingham.

The preliminary game will be played between the Ionians and the Overholt girls. The Overholt five is another team that has not yet lost a game and the Ionians are out to put a dent in the record. The preliminary game will begin at 7.45 sharp.

B. & O. TEAM IS ANNIHILATED

Railroaders Can't Keep in Step With Speed Set by Uniontown Team.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad team,
a club in the Fraternal and Industrial Men's League of this city, was badly
defeated by the Penn team of Uniontown last evening, the final score being 53-24. The Penns had everything their own way and when they wanted
to score all that was necessary was to shoot.

The Baltimore & Ohio team didn't even get a good start. The Penn five dropped in a field goal almost as soon as the whistle was blown. After a total of 31 points was run up, the Penns took a little practice in passing the ball. The winning five kept the ball going around the floor so fast
that the Baltimore & Ohio team was bewildered.

Matty Bala, of the Penn five, had a finger fractured and it will not be healed in time to allow him to play
in the championship games between the Penns and the Monongahela Lyceums, next week for a side bet of $100. The lineup:

PENNS.	B. & O.
J. Sansone	forward	Addis
T. Sansone	forward	Martin
Bala	center	Jones
McManus	guard	Durst
Lannon	guard	Hannigan

Substitutions—Whaley for Bala;
Goodman for Addis. Field goals—J.
Sansone 15, Bala 1, Lannon 1. Mc-
Manus 6, Addis 1, Martin 1, Jones 1,
Durst 3, Hannigan 3. Fouls goals—
Bala 2 out of 5; Sansone 2 out of 4;
Hannigan 5 out of 8.

UNIONTOWN HIGH WINS.

Defeated McAlleghandown High After That Team Was Clobbered.

Uniontown high school defeated the McAlleghandown high school last evening at Uniontown when by rallying strongly in the last few minutes
of play the red and white terrors overcame the two point lead of their opponents and then to make their standing better dropped two more baskets
through. The score was 27-23. Uniontown was virtually beaten until the last part of the second half, when the team rallied.

McAlleghandown started off with a rush and the speed and floor work were excellent. Frisky shots from difficult positions piled up the visitors'
score and they led the entire game
until Uniontown tied the score.

GAME AT D. T. H. S.

The Junior Maccabees Will Clash With Fast Youngsters.

The Maccabee Juniors will play the D. T. H. S. Juniors at the Dunbar

ning. The game will be played as a preliminary to the big game. The Juniors have defeated the Dunbar team
this season and have been anxious to arrange a game with Honsberger's
team.

The Junior team is composed of

and Sellers.

League Notes

The Baltimore & Ohio team has been complaining of the long intervals between games on their schedule.

Now that Overholt has decisively defeated every other girls team in the city it is time to go outside for honors.
The girls ought to show Westmoreland
county some real playing.

The Connellsville Garage appeared
for the first time Tuesday evening.
Black sweaters with orange stripes is the design of the uniform. The letters
"C. G. C." are sewed on the orange band. It is not clearly understood just what the last "C" stands for.

The Baltimore & Ohio team is using the pass allowed railroaders to advantage. The boys travel lots. One game has been played at Confluence,
another at Uniontown and arrangements have been made for one at Meyersdale.

Mount Braddock has been followed by a flax this season. S. Matthews, a star, had his nose broken, and G. Livingstone, another regular, has been suspended. S. Matthews is out with a sore arm. The team may not finish the season unless available substitutes
can be secured.

When the Overholt girls and Broad Ford play at the Maccabees on the same evening, there is lots of rooting.
The girls can't help telling their "best friend" on the floor how to make the basket. A favorite warning is "watch your toes" called when a foul is being shot.

The Elks' team has not yet appeared.
It will be composed of young men, as
is the Moose organization.

The one big ambition of the Lady Maccabees (married team) is to defeat the Overholt girls. Yet when Overholt plays, the Maccabees are always the loudest rooters for their rivals.

Pittsburgh Woman Loses Savings of a Lifetime.

She didn't think banks were safe,
so Mrs. Rosa, living in South Pittsburg, withdrew her savings, $5,600,
and placed the money in a steel safe
at home. All went well for six months.
Then one day, while she was out, the safe was broken open and every cent taken. It is always dangerous to leave even small sums at home. Keep your savings in a savings account and the money for current expenses in a checking account with a good bank.

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses?
Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their

Special to The Courier.
SCOTSDALE, March 1.—Members
of the District Sunday School associ-

P. C. Wray, the president. Reports from department superintendents
show that the district is developing an advanced standard and it is the expectation of the district officers to make every school in the seventh district a front line school and make
this a banner district.

A district convention was decided upon for April 22 at the Reformed Church in Rutledge. The committee
in charge was D. W. Shupe, W. P.
Stoner and Miss Ida Newmyer.

It was decided that all Sunday
schools would be visited by district
officers to see what progress is being made toward becoming front line
schools.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver,
and bowel poisons before
breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out,
to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache,
colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin
pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says
a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins
well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before
breakfast each day a glass of hot water
with a teaspoonful of Limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary
tract, before putting more food into
the stomach.

Get a quarter pound of Limestone
phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and, almost tasteless,
except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink Limestone phosphate hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins;
also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel; like
you feel before your blood, nerve and muscles become saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment and above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin,
cleansing, sweetening and purifying,
so Limestone phosphate and hot water
before breakfast, act on the stomach,
liver, kidneys and bowels.—Adv.

BACK TO NATURE TO RESTORE GRAY HAIR

Don't Use Dyes—Sunshine and Air and Q-Ban Brings Back Natural Color
in Simple, Easy Way.

Nature knows best, after all. Nature
gives the greatest human minds and it hard to rival. But man's scientific and chemical have now found how to take advantage of this fact—how to make Nature help in performing what seems almost a miracle in restoring the actual
natural color to gray or faded hair,
evenly, permanently, safely—without
the use of dangerous, dirty, sticky dyes
or poisons.

Chemical experts perfected Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer after many years of study. This preparation works in harmony with Nature in a wonderful
way. All you need do is wet your hair with Q-Ban—which is not a dye—and then expose it to the sun, pure, free air and sunshine. Repeat this daily
for a little time and your hair will return evenly and gradually to its original, uniform shade. It will be glossy, lustrous, soft, abundant and beautiful.
Remember, Q-Ban does not pretend to work instant miracles. Such claims belong to dyes. But it is certain, safe and sure. Q-Ban is not a patent medicine.

The secret of Q-Ban's matchless results rests in a process of oxidation,
freeing the oxygen in the air, which is brought into contact with the air
and sunshine after Q-Ban has been applied. It is in this way the scientists have summoned Nature to their aid and you are.

Q-Ban Restorer is all ready to use.
It is guaranteed to be as harmless as Nature herself. It is the only guaranteed preparation of the kind and is sold under guarantee of your money back if not satisfied. A large bottle, for 50 cents. For smaller bottles, 25 cents.

"THE COURAGE OF SILENCE"—
A Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature starring Alice Joyce and Harry Morey,
is a wonderfully interesting attraction today. The story of this great attraction unfolds skillfully and is made doubly entertaining by the completeness of the production. The location
includes scenes in the United States, London and the south of France. In
"The Courage of Silence," an American business man marries a beautiful woman and the father of two fine youngsters goes over to London, and while there he meets the wife of the Spanish ambassador. She is unhappily married and is attracted by the American.
In a moment of passion they imagine they have fallen in love with each other.
The American returns home, decides
he cannot live without the other woman, deserts his family and elopes
with the wife of the Spanish gentleman. When she learns the truth about the American's family affairs
she leaves him, enters a convent and is the means of bringing Bradley and his family together again. Bradley's children are attacked by an epidemic

of fever, and Mercedes, now a nurse,
is summoned. She learns the identity of the family, and when the boy calls
his father, she starts in search of
him. After the crisis is passed, Mercedes, who has concealed her identity
by use of a veil, wins her fight against a renewal of the relations, and Bradley, who has recognized her to keep his wife in ignorance. Tomorrow
Myrtle Steadman and House Peters will be starred in "The Happiness of Three Women," a Paramount attraction in five acts. Saturday, Frank Keenan will be seen in "The Crab."

REASONS WHY STRIKE FAILED

Fultz Did Not Mix Enough, Says Prominent Player.

IS STICKLER FOR TRIFLES

Member of the Baseball Fraternity Adds That Head of Organization Attended Too Much to Small Details. Public Opinion Opposed to Strike.

Now that the Players' fraternity is a dead issue it is interesting to note what really killed it.

Quite recently an expert had occasion to talk over the fate of the fraternity with one of its influential members. This player was no scoundrel, and he had no grievance against Fultz other than he thought the strike had been a terrible failure.

"I will tell you what is the matter with Dave," volunteered this player. "He is no mixer. I don't mean that he ought to hang around bars or anything like that, but I think he should have made it a point to get around more and see people. For instance, he was in the same town with Teuer, and I understand he called on him only once."

"Now, if Dave had become better acquainted it would have helped a lot. Both he and Teuer were former players, and that should have made them comrades. He should have been a fellow who could have said 'Hello, governor' and grasped him by the hand."

"Then he should have tried to get around to the club owners and been friendly with them. I understand there are a lot of good fellows among them. Dave should have tried to show them that the object of the fraternity was to boost the game—boost it all the time."

This player also intimated that Fultz showed bad judgment in calling the winter strike over trifling minor league details. "Mike Dunlin had it right," said this player. "It was as bad as the ice cutters going on strike on the Fourth of July."

This player expressed a lot of good sense. "He is hurting the game, and he must go," the magnates kept on crying while the issue was warm. At that time it seemed the players might stand.

Fultz had too much of a lawyer mind to be a helpful leader of the players. He was too quick to find flaws, and as president of the fraternity he deemed it was his duty to scrutinize every action taken by majors and minors with his trained legal eye to see that there were no loopholes.

He did not plug enough for the game and was too quick to find fault. The feeling he made with organized baseball never was sufficient to call a strike, whether it was a winter or summer strike. He never had public sympathy. He counted on that, too, and believed the public would stick to the players in any issue with the club owners. But the public had seen too much of how the players trampled on the down-trodden club owners to get up much enthusiasm over the winter strike.

The public was bored more over this strike than it was interested in the movement. The writer encountered only one fan who actually came out and defended the side of the players. If the big city fans can be taken as a criterion the public was opposed to the strikers.

Perhaps Fultz's biggest mistake was in the time he selected to put over the strike, and that hurt him more with the powers of organized baseball than anything else. Turn to the record during the Federal league war, the major leagues just got back on their feet last season after three years of top-heavy contracts. The minors had another frightful year, as bad as either of the two years while the Federal league was in the field.

And Fultz mingled more with the club owners he could have discovered the mood the minors were in.

Fultz also overestimated the loyalty as well as the strength of his players. Many stars held holdover contracts—Specker, Cobb, Johnston, Slater, Baker and Collins. Fultz figured these signed stars would strengthen his band rather than weaken it. He believed the drama of paying these stars, surrounded by bush leaguers, would force the major leagues to do his bidding. He failed, however, to figure on the strikers. These $3,000 and $4,000 men argued that it is due for Specker to wire his sympathy with the strike when he is able to collect his $10,000 while the small fry is out in the cold fighting for minor league technicalities.

Then the players had too much time to think the matter over. When the "Knute" strike was called the players were stopping at various hotels. On the spot of the moment they decided to remain on the players' side rather than be called quitters. In the winter time most players are idle and have nothing to do but loaf around and think of next season. They are surrounded by

Fred Fulton Likely to Be Jess Willard's Next Opponent

It now looks as if Fred Fulton will surely be Jess Willard's next opponent in the ring. The big Minnesotan has been displaying great form in his recent bouts and is the only man likely to give the champion heavyweight a real battle. Fulton has filled out somewhat during the past two months although he never will be able to enter a fat man's race.

From his heels to his shoulders Fulton looks like a man who should be able to do some remarkable work in the ring. His long legs are as clean cut as a grenadier's, and his wide shoulders and sinewy arms indicate hitting ability. But his long, thin neck and fragile looking chin are not those of a successful fighting man. Like Bombardier Wells, he is built to give, but not to receive punishment.

Like Wells, Fulton may become a very clever boxer. His natural speed and tremendously long reach make it easy for him to stand off and stab his opponent with lefts before the latter can get into range. Fulton evidently is aware that he cannot afford to exchange wallops on even terms with his more sturdy built rivals. He aims to become as clever as some of the little fellows instead of an unskilled bruiser like the great majority of the giants.

hope influences, and no one will ever know how many players related their pledges because their wives directed the business affairs of their husbands.

JIMMY JOHNSON "BOY BANDIT"

Fight Manager Dubbed Thus Because of Forfeit Grabbing Tactics.

Jimmy Johnston is dubbed the "boy bandit" because of his forfeit grabbing tactics, but if a few more managers would join in the game it would do much to eliminate that undesirable thing—the agreement to make a certain weight, then coming into the ring pounds over it.

Perhaps Johnston was a little harsh when he recently took $50 away from Frankie Whitney because he was three pounds over the weight he agreed to make for Joe Welling. Whitney had made an honest effort to train, and on top of that he got knocked out in the fifth, which failed to move Jimmy's stony heart any.

Johnston seized upon the forfeit posted for Battling Koplin, who was to fight Welling in Jamestown, Pa., recently. Not only that, but he refused to let Welling fight in view of the fact that Welling had knocked Koplin out once before when he weighed just as much—around 150—and that the house was picked. It is hard to see just what Johnston or Welling gained.

Jackey McFarland was another who never overlooked any forfeits either. And on top of that he seldom made the agreed poundage for any of the boys he met. His forfeits generally were small, and he could afford to give them up and take what was coming to him at the box office, which was not inconsiderable.

Jimmy Duffy of Lockport, who poses as a lightweight and really is a welter, also has found his inability to make weight costly. He seems to have profited by his two experiences with Charlie White and to be tackling boys of his own weight nowadays. It is said White knocked him for about $1,000 in their battles.

HEY, DIOGENES!

Two years ago Bob Brown, owner of the Vancouver club, sent railroad fare to that city to a recruit named Hammond, who lived in California, and a player answering to that name reported when the season opened. His playing was so poor that Brown suspected him of being an impostor and charged him with that offense. The player admitted this and said that he had received the money sent to him by real Hammond by mistake and had gone to Vancouver on a chance of making good. He was promptly dismissed from the squad.

Brown had about forgotten the incident when he received a letter from the young man the other day, apologizing for the deception and enclosing a check for the amount of the railroad fare which he had wrongfully used.

NATIONAL GOLF TITLE PLAY.

The national amateur golf championship tournament will begin on Aug. 20. An earlier date had been suggested, but W. C. Fawcett, Jr., announced that the week of Aug. 20 has been approved by the executive committee of the United States Golf association.

This is about the same time as last year, when the tournament was held over the Merion Cricket club links, near Philadelphia, the first week in September.

Here's One of the Ways Malicious Lies were Circulated about CAMEL Cigarettes

In an effort to injure the wonderful sale of CAMEL cigarettes, many unprincipled schemes have been resorted to. The following is one of many ways such lies have been put into circulation.

An individual liar would approach a group of men, produce a newspaper, published in a distant city, and apparently become interested in reading. Suddenly he would exclaim, "What do you think of this?" He would then pretend to read an article about CAMEL cigarettes. In reality, the paper contained no such statement. The individual would at once walk away, carrying the paper with him. A newspaper from a distant city was always used in an effort to cover the tracks of the liar.

Would anyone voluntarily do this kind of unprincipled work? They must have been paid by someone to do it, and all of them should be exposed. An honest man will not knowingly work under the direction of a crooked superior, nor will an honest superior knowingly tolerate a crooked employee. However, some salesmen have told the trade that they had in their possession a newspaper containing a damaging article about CAMEL cigarettes. This was a malicious falsehood, as they had no such newspaper, and when asked to produce it, they were unable to do so.

CAMEL cigarettes are pure and delightful and the most popular cigarettes ever sold at any price. Cigarette smokers will not, for any length of time, permit malicious falsehoods to prejudice them against CAMELS.

PETEY DINK—He's Such a Practical Joker!

By G. A. Volpert

HEART of the SUNSET BY REX BEACH

Author of "The Spoilers," "The Iron Trail,"
"The Silver Horde," Etc.

The first of the newcomers, acting as spokesman for his party, stepped out into the moonlight and cried loudly: "Hello, men! What's going on here?" It was an American voice; it had a broad, slow Texas drawl.

"Hello, Men! What's Going on Here?"

"We're having a little party of our own. I reckon you fellows had better beat it. Goodnight!"

The outposts that had been sent to cover the bank in both directions were now coming in. Through the stillness of the night these sounded the thump of rifles. Seeing that the stranger did not seem to take his hint, Lewis raised his voice again:

"That's your road back, yander. It's a right good road, and I'd advise you to take it."

But this suggestion was also ignored; in fact, it appeared to amuse the man addressed. For he, too, laughed. He turned, and the women noticed that he carried a short saddle gun. They saw also that at least one of the men at his back was similarly armed.

"Now, what's the hurry?" The stranger was chuckling. Suddenly he raised his voice and called loudly: "Hello, Dave! Is that you?"

The answer came promptly back: "Hello, Capt. Sure it's me."

"It is fortunate that I chanced to learn of this matter. You have done me a great service, Senor Law, for I came to Romero purposely to examine into the death of this unfortunate man. But I could learn nothing; nobody knew anything whatever about the matter, and so I became convinced that it amounted to little. Now—behold! I discover that I was deceived. Or—perhaps there still may be a mistake."

Blaze Jones thrust his daughter aside and advanced toward the speaker. "There's no mistake," he declared indignantly. "I don't make mistakes when I go grave-robbing. Don't Romero was shot by your men. He had five thousand dollars on him, or he should have had, and he was an American citizen. Your Colonel Blanco covered the body, but he'll have a hard time of it."

"I don't know what you mean," said the man. "I wish you'd talk to me and see what you make of this. Absolutely—quite. Mrs. Strange seems to have a peculiar effect on him. Why, it's almost as if—"

"What?"

"Well, I suppose I'm foolish, but—I'm beginning to believe in spells. You know, Mrs. Strange's husband is a sort of—"

"There was no further opportunity for words, as the woman reappeared at that instant; but little later, after she went in search of Blaze, still considerably mystified. As she neared the farm buildings, she glimpsed a man's figure hastily disappearing into the barn. The figure bore a suspicious resemblance to Blaze Jones, yet when she followed, he was nowhere to be seen."

"Mr. Jones?" Alaire called. She repeated Blaze's name several times, but nothing stirred. The door of a harness closet opened cautiously, and out of the darkness peered Paloma's father. He looked more wishy than ever behind his big, gold-rimmed spectacles. "What in the world are you doing in there?" she cried.

Blaze emerged, blinking. He was just and prepping.

"Hello, Mr. Alaire!" he saluted her with a poor assumption of breeziness. "I was fixing some harness, but I'm right glad to see you."

Alaire regarded him quizzically. "What were you doing?" she asked.

"Hiding. Who, me?"

"I saw you dodge in here like a—"

Blaze confessed: "I reckon I've got the willies. Every woman I see looks like that dressmaker."

"Paloma was telling me about you. Why do you hate her so?"

"Don't know 'I hate her, but her and her husband have put a jinx on me. They're the worst people I ever see, Mr. Alaire."

"You don't really believe in such things?"

Blaze dusted off a seat for his visit, saying: "I never did till lately, but now I'm wiser than a plantation nigger. I tell you there's things in this world we don't see. I wish you'd get Paloma to fix her. I've tried and failed. I wish you'd tell her those dresses are rotten."

"But they're very nice; they're lovely; and I've just been complimenting her. Now what has this woman done to you?"

It seemed impossible that a man of Blaze Jones' character could actually

COMING WEDNESDAY EACH WEEK To Connellsville, Pa. DR. MACKENZIE Pittsburg Specialist

A Physician Surgeon and Specialist Registered Under the Laws of this State and Eminent in His Profession and Known Amongst the Most Successful Living Specialists, will visit the Smith House, Wednesdays Every Week.

The specialist, announces that in order to introduce his wonderful new special combined system of MECHANIC-ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatment in Connellsville and vicinity, he desires to secure a few supposedly incurable cases at once (commencing at 9 o'clock next Wednesday morning, March 7), and in order to secure a number of different cases quickly so that he can restore them at once (if possible) and thus prove to the public the wonderful curative powers of his special combined system of treatment, he will treat the first few cases absolutely free. The only charge made will be for the medicines and mechanical therapy and their distribution.

The treatment used by Dr. Mackenzie, the specialist, in most cases is mechanical-electro-medical and not surgical. He never uses a knife only as a last resource, and seldom is it essential. Only the best and purest drugs and chemicals are used by this specialist, his motto being: that every sick person is entitled to the best remedies that are to be found in nature, regardless of cost.

Those who suffer from some derangement of the nervous system, some functional disorder or some special chronic disease, need some restorative force either in conjunction with or apart from medicinal treatment to build up the system and restore health. It is idle to expect benefits from any set methods of treatment such as have been employed from time immemorial and too often found a failure. Each case requires individual attention.

Electricity and Scientific Drugless Methods or Serums, Bacterins and Antitoxins.

Are "Up-to-Date" Treatments Giving Results.

The revitalizing force is a marvelous recuperative agency in nervous chronic, weakened vitality and chronic diseases and in special diseases, and readily adapts itself to the condition at hand. If your health has been weakened or destroyed through overwork, nervous worry or the progress of some insidious disease, investigate at once the benefits obtained in the MECHANIC-ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatment. By electricity combined with proper medical treatment. Do not court danger by delay or continue to doctor without benefit when MECHANIC-ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatment may prove your early salvation. I have had so many patients who have almost given up hope and since then have wondered why they did not come before MECHANIC-ELECTRO-MEDICAL treatment, are invariably benefited, often prolonging life in innumerable cases, and wonderful results have been wrought in cases thought incurable. There is no economy in hesitation. No cases can be treated by correspondence.

Dr. Mackenzie never publishes the name of any of his patients and all his professional work is strictly confidential.

Dr. Mackenzie only accepts cases for treatment that can be greatly benefited or cured. If your case is incurable you will be frankly told so. However, many cases that have been pronounced incurable under old methods can be quickly benefited and cured under this wonderful new special combined treatment.

OPERATOR LIABLE
For Injuries to a Driver by a Violent or Kicking Mule.

A case was recently decided by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in which a mine employee engaged in driving a mule was injured through jumping from a car and alighting on sills lying along the side of the track, when the mule began to kick. The court held that the driver is entitled to recover damages from his employer if the mule was vicious to the employee's knowledge, and if the employee was "not warned of the danger of the animal kicking, and acted with reasonable prudence in jumping, considering all the surrounding circumstances."

The employing operator cannot escape liability on the theory that the presence of the sills lying beside the track was the direct cause of the accident and due to negligence of a certified mine foreman, for which the operator would not be responsible.

MINERS LEAVING
Car Shortage is Causing Many Workers to Quit the Somerset Field.

That hundreds of coal miners are being driven out of Somerset county because of the coal shortage is the complaint of coal operators in that region. The shortage is growing more serious each day, it is claimed; last week being the worst since the shortage began.

"Mines which are usually given a rating of 35 cents per day, are receiving 35 cents per week," declared one operator.

The mines hampered by the car shortage can be operated only a few days each week. Most of the miners have large families and are unable to keep them on the money they are making in Somerset. Because of this they are forced to go elsewhere in search of labor.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

When Hamilton arrived home and found that Rankin had not come, it created no little excitement and anxiety among Rankin's family and friends here and at Uniontown, and the telephone wires were kept busy for a time in trying to locate him, which was only relieved when Rankin turned up some two hours behind his schedule time, he having taken the street car to Fairbairn and walked from there home, a distance of about three miles, with no serious results from the walk other than a somewhat ruffled temper.

Collins' Sundaes Are Famous

The ordinary sundae consists of ice cream with syrup poured over it. Our sundaes are different.

ICE CREAM is the foundation for them and you know how good Rieck's is. But in our syrups we manage to impart a flavor that you can't get elsewhere.

That's the reason two Uniontown women got off the car here the other day, on their way to Scottsdale, just to get one of Collins' sundaes. "We'd heard so much about them, we simply had to get off and try them."

Try one yourself. You'll understand why our fountain trade is the biggest in the city.
